

How to disagree in Yiddish

July 7, 2022 1.30pm-3pm (Warsaw time)

In this conversation workshop participants will learn how to express disagreement in Yiddish, using vocabulary and idioms of different language registers. Participants will discover through active practice that disagreeing in Yiddish can be elegant and polite, but also emphatic, blunt, involving not only the mouth and tongue, but sometimes the whole body.

Tal Hever-Chybowski is the director of the Paris Yiddish Center – Medem Library (Maison de la culture yiddish – Bibliothèque Medem).
