

Alessia Di Donato

Summer Shabbat Dinner – culinary workshop

June 30, 4PM (Warsaw time)

Alessia Di Donato – Roman by birth, pastry chef; teaches culinary techniques, writes about food, lover of art, travel and the good life. Graduate of prestigious culinary schools: Le Cordon Bleu, Accademia Italiana Del Pane and Paidei - a professional confectionery school in Milan, where she earned her diploma under Massimo Pica. She promotes Jewish cuisine, travels around the world in search of Jewish flavors, recreates forgotten recipes and proposes new versions of well-known dishes. For years, she has been cooperating with the POLIN Museum and other institutions related to Jewish culture, conducting workshops and culinary courses. With her dishes, she takes us on a journey through Sephardic and Ashkenazi cuisine.